2.3 League Entry Requirements

ARTICLE III STANDARDS OF ELITE CONDUCT AND CONSTITUTION

3.1 Standard of Excellence and The Elite Conduct Constitution

3.1.1 As a member of TEA, an elite standard of excellence is expected both on and off the fantasy football field. On the field, members demonstrate elite-level dedication, sportsmanship, and strategic gameplay. TEA members are expected to set lineups diligently each week, make informed roster decisions, and compete at full capacity regardless of record. Gamesmanship that seeks to undermine the spirit of friendly competition will not be tolerated. Off the field, TEA members uphold elite standards of integrity, respect, and professionalism in all league interactions. This includes conduct during the draft, trade negotiations, group dialogue, as well as general adherence to the league constitution. Members shall refrain from collusion, harassment, abuse, and any other behaviour that might bring disrepute upon themselves or TEA as a whole. The TEA Shield is one that must be constantly earned and protected through actions, not words alone. As a member of TEA, each person is held accountable for maintaining elite status.

3.1.2 The members of TEA, in order to form an elite fantasy football league, establish justice on the virtual gridiron, ensure domestic tranquillity within the league chat, provide for the common offence, promote the general welfare of informed trash talk, and secure the blessings of bragging rights to league members and posterity, do ordain and establish the following principles:

3.2 Fundamental Principles

3.2.1 TEA Members shall endorse the following principles:

- (a) The Tako Mentality: No member shall ever consider themselves truly defeated. Regardless of record or roster, each member must always strive to compete and improve, embodying the relentless spirit of the underdog.
- (b) The Next Man Up Principle: Injuries are an inevitable part of football, but they shall not be used as an excuse for poor performance. Each member is expected to adapt and find the next player to step up and contribute.
- (c) TCWFAWTFIU (The Cowboys Will Find A Way To Fuck It Up): No member shall use their fandom of the Dallas Cowboys as an excuse for poor fantasy performance. As history shows, the Cowboys will undoubtedly disappoint their loyal fans in new and increasingly embarrassing ways each season.
- (d) The Tinkerer's Prerogative: Each member reserves the right to tinker, tweak, and obsess over their fantasy lineups. No matter how inadvisable, last-minute roster moves are a sacred privilege that shall not be infringed upon unless they violate other Constitution articles.
- (e) Equality of Opportunity: All members shall have an equal chance to succeed through savvy roster management, shrewd negotiation, and a bit of luck from the fantasy gods.

3.3 Rights and Privileges

3.3.1 TEA Members shall enjoy the following rights and privileges:

- (a) Freedom of Speech: All members have the right to engage in spirited trash talk, provided it does not cross lines into personal attacks or harassment.
- (b) Right to a Fair Trial: Any member accused of conduct detrimental to the league shall be given an opportunity to defend themselves before a Tribunal of their peers.
- (c) Protection Against Unreasonable Trades: No member shall have their roster pillaged by lopsided trade offers that violate the principles of fair play.
- (d) Privilege of Participation: All members have the privilege of fully participating in league events, from the draft to the playoffs, so long as they uphold their responsibilities.

3.4 Responsibilities

- 3.4.1 All members are expected to actively manage their teams throughout the season, including setting lineups, proposing trades, and scouring the waiver wire.

3.4.2 League dues shall be paid promptly and in full, barring exceptional circumstances as determined by the Commissioner.

3.4.3 Members shall refrain from collusion, cheating, or any other actions that undermine the integrity of the league.

3.4.4 The Commissioner's rulings, rendered impartially and in good faith, shall be respected as final.

3.5 Amendments

4.4.2 All league members are required to be present at the designated draft location by the official draft start time.

which has been deemed disruptive to league stability.

13.3.3 All of Will Redl's proposed changes must be submitted in writing to the Commissioner no later than 30 days prior to the annual rule review meeting.

13.3.4 This limitation does not affect Will Redl's right to vote on rule changes proposed by other league members.
